DEDICATION

Without her leadership in taking the first step, there would be no “STEPS.” Without the inspiration of her dedication to the value of education, we would not be able to understand all that Chadwick School has given to us. Without her example of courage, and honor, we would not be so well prepared for the world beyond Chadwick. Our love, and appreciation of her has grown with every passing year.

It is with the deepest respect, and the greatest affection, that “STEPS” is dedicated to our beloved founder, Margaret Lee Chadwick, by the class of 1977.

IN APPRECIATION:

To the parents of the Class of 1977 - Because you care, we have benefited. On the bottom step it is parents who make Chadwick a reality. We appreciate that you have given us something special that can never be taken from us - a Chadwick education. We thank you, our parents.

With love and gratitude,

Get out of da ivy, Brad!

Mmm, Mmm, good...

Matt, get DOWN.

There he is AGAIN!

OUCH!

The whisper of the ocean
as it's washed along the shoreline,
is the soft and gentle laughter
of water running free.
The pool of light beside me
chases shadows from my memories,
and there're quiet cries of seagulls
flying low upon the sea.

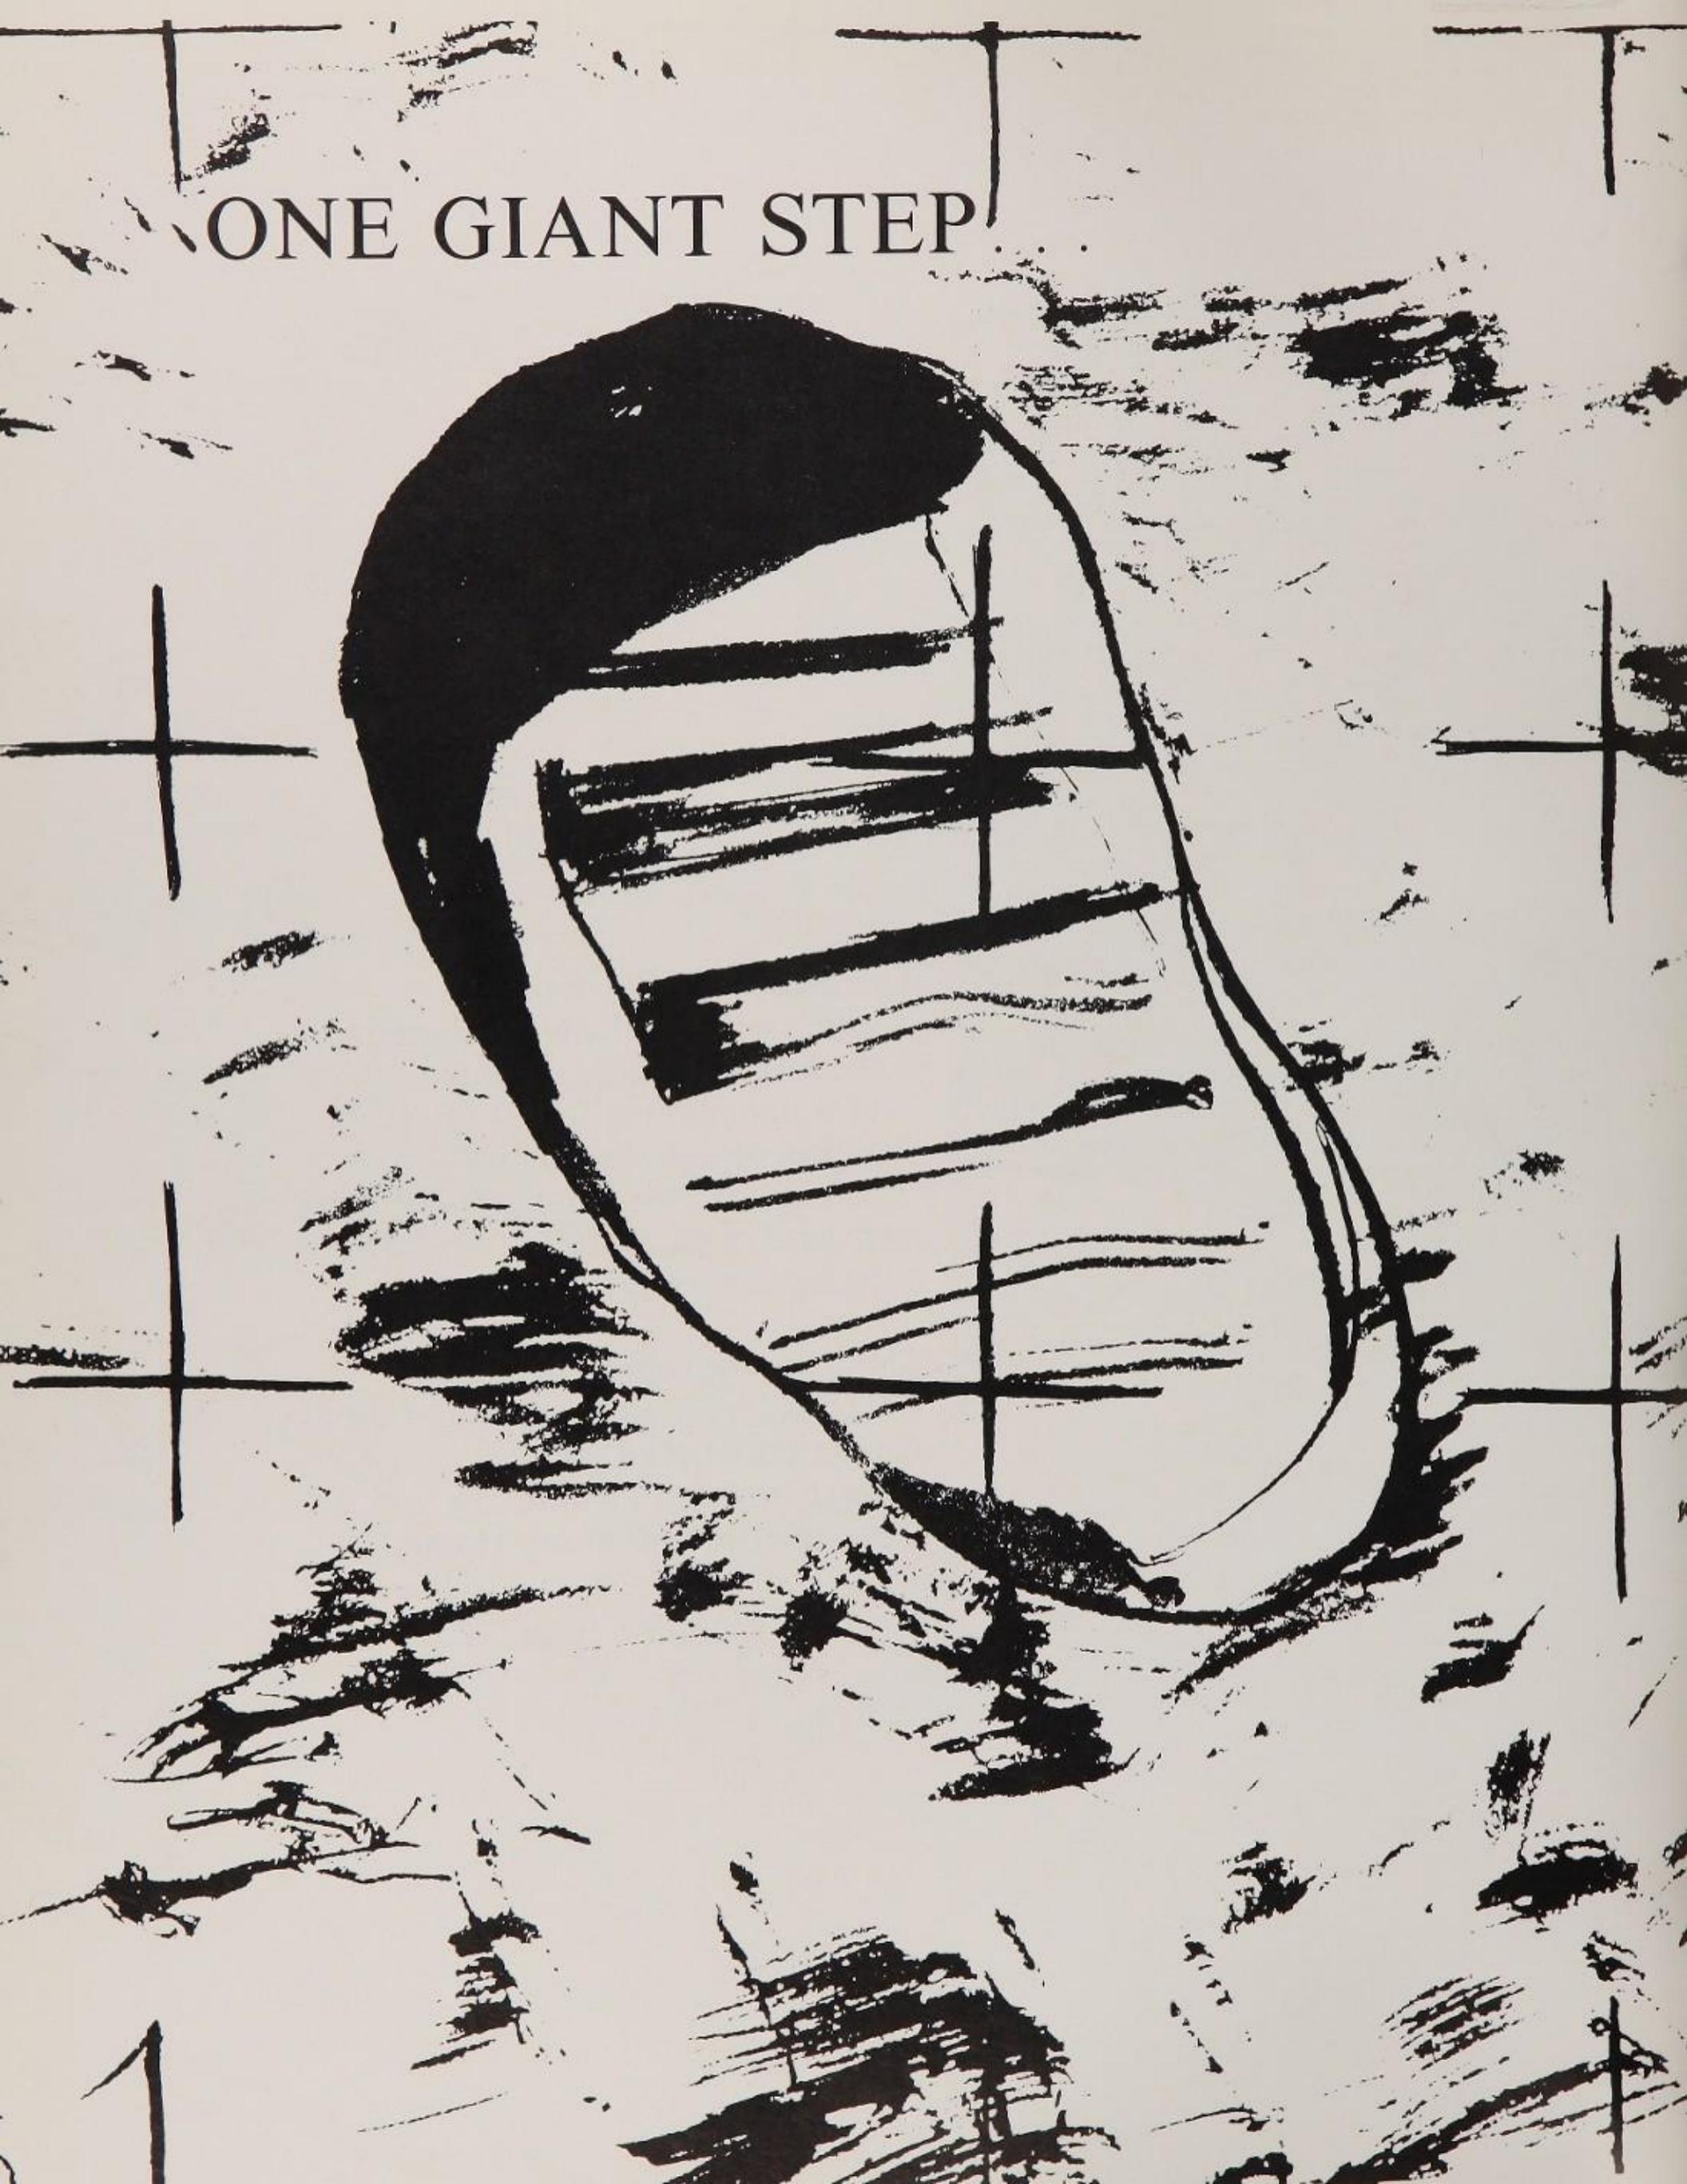

These are the sounds of my life,
Like the deeply soothing call of the sky.
No matter where I go,
these memories will follow...
these quiet sounds of my Home.

Oh mirror in the sky, what is love?
Can the child within my heart rise above?
Can I sail thru the changing ocean tides?
Can I handle the seasons of my life?

Well, I've been afraid of changing

Luminous, silver stars mask the vast emptiness of a nighttime sky.
They dot the universe,
twinkling messengers from the infinite distances
of space.
The night is cool.
A soft breeze sweeps about me
crisp and alive;
it, too, a messenger
voyaging through this manufactured world,
conceived in the minds of humans
and wrought through their finger tips.
The breeze is an alien,
born of the pure sources-wind and sea and sun.
It travels now,
mysterious friend,
cleansing and rejuvenating all that lay in its path,
and carrying with it
the smallest remnants of faraway places and distant times.
It whispers,
conveying the essence of forgotten laughter and tears,
in an imperceptible voice
silently echoing the vibrant chord of humanity.
Suddenly, it vanishes
and all that remains
is an enveloping blackness.
The evening is still.
Moonlit shadows are outlined against the sky
and gently ripple across mirrored surfaces,
summoning a wordless celebration.
And I am gone, an invisible, joyous spark dancing upon the wind.

...FORWARD...

CLASS OF 1977

Chadwick School is many things.

Chadwick is tradition.

Chadwick is honor.

Chadwick is pride.

When the sportsmen and sportswomen of this school participate in athletic competition these attitudes become more important than just the final outcome on the scoreboard. These concepts affect our daily lives, and we would not be the fine people that Chadwick strives to make us without them. Regardless of whether we experience victory or defeat, we have learned to study the faces of our players. What do we see there? Is it passion?.

Is it pain?

Or, is it pride....

agelby Parks

In friendship now we gather,
our song of love to sing.
To thee, dear Alma Mater, a tribute
we will bring.

This school so firmly founded, on faith in childhood's worth, we will take with us in memory,
throughout the wide, wide earth.

Mrs. Leach with P. E. tips on "How to

GOOD LUCK IN THE YEARS

THE WILL

My Girl Scout Cookie business I leave to Leith Frazer and any other human being crazy enough to attempt to perpetuate such a blatant display of foolishness.

My on-the-lawn concert legacy I leave to Marti, Mananda, Gina, Matthew, and all of the other lunatics whose common denominator of tone-deafness helped them sit through my music.

And, joyously, I leave my heart-felt thanks to the faculty and administration of Chadwick, to Arrhual, and to all of my Friends for the beautiful, wonderful happiness you shared with me for 6 years.

Have a good one,
for Ever.

Nothing in the World can take the place of persistence. Talent will not; nothing is more common than unsuccessful men with talent. Genius will not; unrewarded genius is almost a proverb. Education will not; the world is full of educated derelicts. Persistence and determination alone are omnipotent.
